Tutor: Stephen Le Page

Course code: 18103

Location: Brighton Courthouse

Day/time: Wednesday 2pm-4pm Weekly

Starts: 10 Oct Ends: 12 Dec

Tutor: Stephen Le Page

This course includes techniques for relaxing and calming the mind and body and for competent handling of life's challenges, especially those we face as we get older in a tech-heavy and rapidly changing world. Participants will be taught ways of thinking and behaviour to aid personal harmony and positive relationships with family, how to cope with change, how to relax and to calm the mind. The course comprises teaching and practical implementation, and is based on a mix of eastern and western philosophies, meditation, martial arts, yoga, practical living examples from business negotiation, habits and teachings of famous influence leaders (incl. Edward de Bono, Leonardo da Vinci), and numerous other eclectic sources. Participants should have a yoga mat, cushion and/or bolster, blanket and wear loose comfortable clothing. They must be able to lie down, be quiet, and able to sit for a reasonable period (on floor or chair). Taking notes and class involvement will be encouraged. Although techniques for managing our passage through the world are taught, the object of the course is adaptive change of the outlook and inner attitudes of the individual. Students must be open-minded and prepared to work to change their life and implement the techniques. This is not simply a weekly soft session (though participants should float out the door) but a way to improve lifestyle and relaxation, and life performance, long term. Prospective students may be contacted to assess readiness and commitment to the course. Students should bring a yoga mat, and bolsters/pillow to help them seat upright on the ground or on chairs. A notebook or a diary etc is required. A meditation bench or cushion can also help.

Prerequisites: No prior knowledge is required but students MUST be prepared to implement and practice the techniques throughout the course. This is a participatory and active course, with successive sessions building on earlier sessions.

Feldenkrais - magical movement

Course code: 18001

Location: Brighton Courthouse

Day/time: Thursday 9.30am Weekly

Starts: 8 Feb Ends: 29 Nov

Tutor: Marie Arendsen

Feldenkrais is not a Gym workout, rather a mind/body exploration. Classes involve being guided through a planned sequence of easy, gentle movements that are designed to develop a greater self-awareness of HOW to move. Through observing one's movements, one can explore and learn more easily, and more comfortable and efficient ways of moving in everyday activities. This improves one's health and wellbeing. Lessons are taught in a range of positions: lying/sitting on the floor, sitting in a chair or standing. Some tips for the classes: Move gently - don't strain. Avoid effort and discomfort. Move slowly - so one can sense, observe, feel. Rest often. Learn & enjoy.

Prerequisites: Need to be able to get up and down from lying on the floor. Bring a yoga mat and a large towel. Wear loose comfortable clothing such as a track suit.

Introduction to Golf Croquet

Course code: 18132

Location: Brighton Croquet Club

Day/time: Wednesday 1pm Weekly

Starts: 8 Aug Ends: 29 Aug

Tutor: Pam White

Brighton Croquet Club offers an introductory course to Golf Croquet, an exciting version of croquet that is a quicker, simpler version of traditional Association Croquet. Each side plays alternate strokes and each tries to be the first to score the next hoop. When a player scores a hoop, all play moves on to the next hoop. The first player to score seven hoops wins the game, which usually takes 45-60 minutes. Brighton Croquet Club is located at 6 Bleazby Ave, Brighton, and the Club supplies all equipment. Participants are asked to wear flat soled shoes to avoid damage to

Mindfulness Meditation

Course code: 18104

Location: Brighton Courthouse

Day/time: Friday 2pm-4pm Weekly

Starts: 12 Oct Ends: 14 Dec

Alternate time: No classes in term 2

Tutor: Stephen Le Page

Mindfulness Meditation allows us to bring our personal consciousness into the present and encourages us to have a non-judgemental focus on life as we experience it. Meditation brings with it the fullest and most heightened experience. The course teaches the tenets of mindfulness in a secular manner as a means of reducing stress and developing new approach to life. Students are taught various methods of meditation, focus and breathing, and in-class practice will comprise approximately 50% + of course time. Homework meditation and training exercises will be set and participants encouraged to report on their experiences. STUDENTS SHOULD BE PREPARED TO MEDITATE AT HOME FOR AT LEAST 20-30 MINUTES DAILY DURING THE COURSE - and forever! Please do not enrol in this course if you are not prepared to change your daily routine. Participants will wear loose comfortable clothing, be able to sit (chair, floor or bench) for a reasonable period, and, if sitting on the floor, bring a firm thick cushion, a meditation bench, a blanket and/or rubber mat. Students of earlier MM courses are welcome to refresh and extend their practice. This is a serious course with a definite outcome in mind on its conclusion - a radical change of outlook and performance. The meditation is a means to a mindful life. Participants must be prepared to meditate at home and make changes in their routine to do so. Prospective participants may be contacted with a view to assessing their commitment and suitability for the course.

Prerequisites: Participants will need to be able to sit erect on a floor yoga mat (preferred) or in a chair for at least 15-20 minutes at a time. Preferably, students will have had some exposure to meditation and the appropriate mind-set.

Tai Chi Wednesday

Course code: 18037

Location: Brighton Courthouse

Day/time: Wednesday 10am Weekly

Starts: 14 Feb Ends: 28 Nov

Tutor: Norman Chong

Tai chi has the unique effect of enhancing one's health, strength, energy, flexibility and balance. It originated some 800 years ago from the ancient Chinese wisdom encompassing the dynamic balance of nature's "Yin" and "Yang". Tia Chi requires you NOT to exert your force but to relax all your body and limbs. Tai Chi core practice demonstrates exceptional smooth and perfect body coordination. Energy circulates effectively throughout the body without rigorous physical exercise. With more oxygen supplied to the tissues you will set in and sustain a state of natural health and a great peace of mind.

Day/time: Monday 9.30am Weekly

Starts: 19 Feb Ends: 3 Dec

Alternate time: 9am start November to March

Tutor: Margaret Gobolyos

A group of men and women who enjoy walking for around an hour to an hour and a half . They should like the beach trails and outlying areas of bayside, but also have an interest in the occasional walk which takes in a park (eg. Braeside) or a trip to the city to walk the Tan or around the Botanical Gardens. Medium paced walkers who like to keep the momentum going but also happy to stop and enjoy special sights when they occur. We are a convivial group who never struggle to make conversation but we can still have our quiet time when it suits not to talk! A very happy activity with like-minded people who just want to start their week with a spring in their step and in good company. This is a mixed walking group of members who are reasonably fit and able to walk between 4-6kms within one and a half hours. The group are encouraged to suggest alternative walks at any time and be prepared to collaborate and share any interesting experiences on the way. The important element is one of enjoying the outcome and the company of friendly seniors! Communication regarding the walks are by email, and a special request is that people notify the tutor if they are unable to attend or are away. We usually leave five minutes after the departure time in order to keep the morning on track. We generally end our walks at a cafe for refreshments or take a thermos to a park venue.

Prerequisites: Fit enough to walk around 4-6kms at a steady pace. Water bottles and sunscreen essential, particularly in the summer period.

Starts: 6 Feb Ends: 27 Nov

Tutor: Jane Alcorn

A weekly walking group centred in Bayside's coastal areas for medium-paced walkers. Covering up to 6km in 1 1/2 hours for those who want to maintain or increase their fitness, at the same time sharing their experiences with fellow walkers. Varied venues and routes, with meeting points of the scheduled walks emailed to participants. A good opportunity to socialise while maintaining fitness. A day's walk will finish with a coffee stop (or maybe walkers bring a thermos for a stop-off in a park). Walks are selected within Bayside and surrounding areas with occasional visits to trails elsewhere in Melbourne (participants' suggestions are welcomed).

Prerequisites: A reasonable walk fitness. In summer water, sunblock and a hat.

Eastern Mahjong for beginners

Course code: 18097

Location: Brighton Senior Centre

Day/time: Monday 10am-12pm Weekly

Starts: 7 Oct Ends: 19 Nov

Tutor: Lesley Bawden

Mahjong has been played since time immemorial, all over the East with differing villages having slightly different "rules" and nuances of language. Instruction books translated from Japan, Korea, China, Singapore and Hong Kong have slightly differing rules. This course is to be a generic introduction to the world of 'twittering the tiles', 'building the wall' and playing with strategy so that participants will gain the basics of the game and be able to go on to develop further skills. No prior experience necessary - in fact it may be a hindrance to unlearn. Class is small and instruction as personal as possible. Mahjong tiles supplied.

Mentoring your memoir

Course code: 18015

Location: Brighton Courthouse

Day/time: Wednesday 2pm-4pm Weekly

Starts: 2 May Ends: 16 May

Tutor: Goldie Alexander

Lots of people have wonderful life-stories to relate, yet find it hard to get started. Though they may tell their stories, collate bits of the past, even research the net, when it comes to setting it all down, they are not sure how to begin, much less how to continue. These workshops will give lots of tips that, if carefully followed, will actually work. You will learn ways of setting oneself up, overcoming procrastination, tackling research and beginnings, creating convincing characters. You will also discuss crafting, plotting, dialogue, endings, the difference between fiction, non-fiction and faction, coping with controversial issues and publishing.

Prerequisites: Uses Goldie's text Mentoring your Memoir

Roots, Rock & Reggae

Course code: 18032

Location: Private Home

Day/time: Wednesday 1.30pm-3.30pm Weekly

Starts: 18 Apr Ends: 13 Jun

Tutor: Trevor Searle

From the Juke Joints of the Delta to the stadiums of today, music has taken us on a journey from simple folk music to complex audio and visual extravaganzas. The music and musicians from the 50s and 60s, playing the small clubs of Liverpool, Chicago and New Orleans is still influencing the music of today. A wonderful era of Skiffle, Jazz, Blues, Gospel and Rock and Roll has created the soundtrack of our lives.

Science

An introduction to human histology

Course code: 18060

Location: Brighton Courthouse

Day/time: Wednesday 2pm-4pm Weekly

Starts: 9 May Ends: 13 Jun

Tutor: Geoffrey Rolls

Histology is the study of the microscopic structure of cells, tissues and organ systems and the relationship between these structures and function. In this short course we will explore the laboratory methods used to prepare tissues for microscopic examination and employed to demonstrate the various structural elements within them. The fundamental classification and microscopic appearance of different types of cells and tissues will be outlined as will the makeup of several important organs. For example we might look at the gut, liver and kidney. Some of the changes which occur when disease is present (histopathology) will be briefly mentioned. Microscopic images will be used extensively throughout this course. An opportunity will be provided to use a microscope to examine specimens.

Physics

Course code: 18119

Location: Brighton Courthouse

Day/time: Monday 12pm Weekly

Starts: 12 Feb Ends: 3 Dec

Tutor: Robert Reynolds

Physics is the most basic of the sciences. It deals with the behaviour and structure of matter. Physics is usually divided into Classical Physics which includes motion, fluids, heat, sound, light, electricity and magnetism; and Modern Physics which includes the topics of relativity, atomic structure, quantum theory, condensed matter, nuclear physics, elementary particles, cosmology and astrophysics (Giancoli). This course will concentrate on classical physics: Mechanics, Oscillations & Waves, Thermodynamics, Electricity & Magnetism, Light and Optics; delving into modern physics if time permits. The subject is for those who wish to gain an understanding of how the universe around them works at the most basic and fundamental level.

Prerequisites: An inquiring mind and desire to understand how the universe works. The 3 Ps: perseverance, persistence and patience; and the 3 Ds: diligence, dedication and determination. Although it is not essential it is useful to enrol in Pure Mathematics as well.

Pure Mathematics

Course code: 18120

Location: Beaumaris Senior Centre

Day/time: Thursday 12pm Weekly

Starts: 8 Feb Ends: 29 Nov

Tutor: Robert Reynolds

Broadly speaking, pure mathematics is mathematics that studies entirely abstract concepts. This was a recognisable category of mathematical activity from the 19th century onwards. Pure mathematics explores the boundary of mathematics and pure reason (University of Waterloo). This course will cover topics such as Set Theory, Polynomial Expressions, Relations and Functions and Indices and Logarithms and Calculus.

Bayside U3A 2018 Course Guide

Prerequisites: A strong desire to understand mathematics. Prior mathematical knowledge is useful, but not absolutely essential. The course will proceed at a speed appropriate for the class, filling any gaps in mathematical knowledge that appear as they arise.
